

Gaming Rules of Play

Members and guests playing gaming machines at Strathfield Sports Club do so with the understanding that the rules listed below are important conditions of play.

Fair Play of Gaming Machines

- A person entering cash into a gaming machine with little or no play and without a valid reason is against the gaming rules of play at Strathfield Sports Club. CCTV, staff surveillance, and electronic monitoring can identify individuals.
- Members or guests are not permitted to use another person's club membership card or permit another person to use your club membership card.
- Members or guests are not permitted to ask or require any other person to give or lend him or her any money.
- Members or guests are not permitted to give money or lend money to any other person.
- Members or guests are not permitted to take any actions to recover monies claimed from or owed by any other person.
- Members or guests are not permitted to maliciously damage a gaming machine, make a fraudulent claim in relation to a gaming machine, fail to report a gaming machine malfunction, use undue force playing a gaming machine or use a gaming machine for the purpose of money laundering.

What is Normal Syndicate Play

- A group of people who pool their own money to play a game.

What is Not Normal Syndicate Play

- Person or persons who pay others to play on their behalf.

Our Rules on Not Normal Syndicate Play

- Members or guests cannot hand money or Cards to other members or guests to play machines.
- Members or guests are not permitted to collect Cards and hand them to other members or guests, or insert these Cards into machines for others to play.
- Members or guests are not permitted to collect Cards and cash them in and hand the money to other members or guests.
- Members or guests cannot pay another person to play machines on their behalf.

What Happens in the Event of a Breach of the Above

Members or Guests who have been found to contravene the above rules may be deemed to exhibit Conduct Unbecoming of a Member and face disciplinary action or, in the case of a non-member, be suspended immediately.
